SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

The Chief Justice said:

"I think it is fitting to note that February 4th, last February 4th marked the 200th anniversary of John Marshall's swearing-in as the fourth Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, as it then was called.

"I am quite convinced that Marshall deserves to be recognized along with George Washington, Alexander Hamilton, and Thomas Jefferson as one of the 'founding fathers' of this country.

"Marshall served as Chief Justice from 1801 until 1835. He authored more than 500 opinions, including most of the important cases the Court decided during his tenure. Using his remarkable ability to reason from general principles to conclusions based on those principles, he derived from the Constitution a roadmap of how checks and balances could be enforced in practice. I don't think I overstate the case to say, that it is in large part because of Marshall's tenure on the Supreme Court that the Third Branch of our government occupies the co-equal position it does today.

"One occasionally hears the expression that an institution is the lengthened shadow of an individual. It may be risky to suggest that an institution which has endured for over two hundred years the way the Supreme Court of the United States has, could be the lengthened shadow one individual; but surely there is only one individual who could possibly qualify for this distinction, and that is John Marshall.

"In honor of the 200th Anniversary of John Marshall's appointment to the Court, our Curator's Office has put together an exhibit located near the statue of John Marshall on the ground floor.

"Today's orders of the Court have been certified by The Chief Justice, filed with the Clerk, and they will not be otherwise announced."
